

Men of Iron

Households and Members

A single member at a local church has no way to start a household. A church nearby has a household and members from both church A and B after speaking to the head of the household can become a part of that existing household.

Joining together strengthens that household and provides a home for the single members.

Growth takes place. As time passes new households are started.